

TOKSAVE

Dear Parents / Guardians,

A sincere thank you to the LIPS P&W committee and all the other helpers who put in a tremendous effort in organizing and hosting the 2016 Golden Orchid Ball last Saturday. It was an amazing night, with everyone in attendance enjoying the evening immensely. Special thanks goes to all those who donated prizes and especially the mums who assisted in the creation of the beautiful class paintings. This fundraiser enables the school to purchase items to enhance the quality learning happening at LIPS. Much appreciated one and all!

Thank you P&W!

Repentance Day Holiday. Tomorrow the 26th August is a Nationally Gazetted public holiday being Repentance Day. There will be no school tomorrow.

Farewell. Farewell to Cameron Sumich in Year 2 on his last day at LIPS today. We wish Cameron and his family every success in the future and all the best at his new school.

School Council. There will be a school council meeting in the school on Thursday the 1st September at 7pm.

2016 Book Week Celebration It was great to see all the children and teachers dressed in costumes as characters from books to mark National Book Week. Children presented their characters in a book week parade.

P&W Thank you to all those who helped with the Orchid Ball, including selling tickets, assisting with class paintings, and all the other preparations and clean-up. A significant amount of money was raised for the school.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR PRINCIPAL'S AWARD RECIPIENTS FROM LAST WEEK!
